

TRAVELLING BY TRAIN

Brighton is easily accessible by train from across Northern Europe with Eurostar and from London and the South of England with a number of train operating companies. The nearest train station is Brighton Station which is around a 10 minute walk away or about £5 in a taxi.

From St Pancras: From the Eurostar platforms follow signs to the First Capital Connect platforms (A and B) and board a Brighton bound train. Journey time is between 1 hour and 15 minutes and 1 hour and 35 minutes, depending on intermediate station stops. We can organise a private hire executive car from St Pancras International. Your driver will meet you in the arrivals area and deliver you straight to the hotel entrance. Prices are around £170 from central London. To enquire about this service please contact us directly with your arrival details (train number, departure city and arrival time). Please note that transfers are not guaranteed until we confirm back to you and payment will be made direct to your driver and not to the hotel.

From London Bridge: Trains from London Bridge are operated by First Capital Connect direct to Brighton Station and journey time is around 1 hour and 10 minutes and 1 hour and 30 minutes, depending on intermediate station stops.

From London Victoria: Southern Railways operate fast and frequent trains direct to Brighton Station with the fastest journey of around 50 minutes.